

Offshore Equipment Construction (RLWI) - Technical Consultancy and Management Support

Contract

Services contract with FMC Technologies Offshore (FTO), now TechnipFMC <https://www.technipfmc.com>, awarded June 2014

Scope of supply

1 off Technical consultant/ management resource

Aim

To provide practical assistance with technical, classification and operational issues relating to the design, procurement and installation of a newbuild offshore system

Services Provided

Consultancy for compilation of DNV submission packages, liaison with DNV

Consultancy on technical matters regarding the basic approach, design and layout for the deck equipment and tower Riserless Light Well Intervention (RLWI) system

Production of technical specifications, ITT packages, storyboard drawings and operations procedures

Management support for the project team including facilitating meetings, compilation and supervision of worklists, actions tracking, etc.

Support Period

13 months (full time)

Result

Support from equipment procurement stage throughout fabrication, assembly and testing of the equipment onshore and eventual transportation to the receiving vessel (Island Performer)

